STUDENTS PRAISED

Professor Terrill is Granted Leave of Absence

President McVey in his brief report before the board of trustees Tuesday indicated that the budget for next year would have to be cut down. He stated that the University will lose in the neighborhood of $20,000 by reason of the reduction of State taxes. It will also lose $8,000 appropriation from the Government for hygiene work. He indicated that the budget would have to be cut down and stated that during the coming two years there would be no increases in salaries, no increases in repairs and laboratory equipment, and no additions to staff. He stated that we are practically on the basis of three years ago, and that the University will do well to hold its own during the next two years.

President McVey called attention of the Board of Trustees to the splendid attitude of the student body and their fine support and interest in the affairs of the University during the past three months. He stated that the attitude of

FLAG AT HALF MAST FOR CAPTAIN ROYDEN

Former University Commandant Passes Away Monday at Home in Cal.

News of the death of Captain Herbert N. Royden, U. S. A. retired officer, 55 years old, former commandant at the University of Kentucky, who died at his home in San Mateo, Cal., Monday at noon, came as a great shock to his many friends here and to students whom he commanded. The message of his death was received by his sons Halsey and Norris Royden, students at the University. Captain Royden's death came after a short illness due to cancer.

Captain Royden is survived by his widow, Mrs. Winifred Royden; five sons, George, Herbert and Robert of San Mateo and Halsey and Norris, students at the University; and two daughters, Winifred of San Mateo and Mrs. George McKercher of Tampa, Fla.

Captain Royden was born in Connecticut in 1867. He was graduated from the United States Military Academy at West Point, N. Y., in 1893 and was commissioned in the regular army.

At the outbreak of the Spanish American War he was stationed for a time at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., and later was transferred to the Philippines. He remained in service there for several years and assisted in the capture of Aguinaldo, the Filipino insurrection.

While stationed in the Philippines he contracted beriberi fever, causing his retirement with rank of captain in 1902. From that time until 1915 he was retired. In 1915 he was recalled into the service and for a time was quartermaster at North Island, San Diego.

In 1917 he was assigned as commandant at the University of Kentucky and remained here until June, 1919. During the period he was here he directed all military activities at the University and was in charge of the S. A. T. C. training unit.

The flag on the campus in front of the Administration Building flew at half-mast Tuesday in observation of the death of Captain Royden, beloved by all those who knew him at the University.

Towns people are looking forward with great pleasure to its presentation and University circles, especially the Stroller cast, are highly interested.

The play was produced in London with unusual success and also had a big run in New York and other large cities. It is rollicking comedy staged with wonderful finish and dignity and will be a splendid counterpoint to the tragedy presented in the Little Theatre for the last program, "The First and the Last," in which Mrs. Sallie Bullock Cave, Mr. Agustus Gay and Professor Mikesell had the leading roles.

The student body of the College of Engineering and the Department of Mines and Metallurgy has been temporarily depleted for the last few days, beginning on Sunday last when eleven junior miners started on their tour of inspection. The junior engineers started their twenty-seventh annual inspection tour Tuesday morning at 8:15 o'clock, over the Southern railroad to Cincinnati. The number that made the tour this year is the largest in the history of the institution.

The members of the junior class of engineering who made the trip are: Moses Alperin, D. C. Antrobus, A. F. Arnold, W. P. Ballenger, E. W. Baughman, J. B. Bishop, W. G. Blades, H. E. Boyd, H. D. Brailsford, J. E. Burks, Robert Clare, Jr., F. W. Clare, J. D. Clark, Jr., J. W. Colpitts, B. C. Collis, F. W. Creedle, W. T. Downing, C. A. Duke, B. C. Erd, F. W. Fest, S. E. Flick, W. B. Grant, C. D. Graham, W. G. Hillen, T. C. Yrons, H. M. Merrivether, V. E. Muncey, E. J. Murphy, E. E. O'Hara, R. H. Ranking, D. M. Ramsey, H. L. Royden, J. C. Sammons, J. L. Shouse, J. B. Slater, E. R. The party will inspect the board of trade, Armour & Co.'s plant, the Western Electric plant, the Sears-Roebuck & Co. factory and the water intakes, among other points of interest. The party will return April 16.

Finishing Touches Being Added to "The Thirteenth Chair" During Rehearsals

Fraternities, Sororities and Faculty to Reserve Sections

Shortly after Mrs. Sallie Bullock Cave read and interpreted "The Thirteenth Chair" that the Strollers had selected for their thirteenth annual production, some persons on leaving the Little Theatre shook their heads gravely and said that it could not be done by amateurs and it would be an impossible undertaking. It was remarked that it was, "far above the head of the most talented Stroller. They will never in the world be able to put that play on because it is much too heavy and they will have to change to something lighter. Don't you think they will?" Evidently John Burks, director, accepted this challenge for he added to Bayard Veiller's masterful production when he selected the best mettle in the Stroller Club as characters in the play.

Mary Lyons, who has the leading role as Madam La Grange, a middle aged Irish woman, is a Stroller veteran and may be remembered as having taken a minor part in "The Climbers" of season before last. However this play was not a true test of her histronic ability for her speaking line that she was entrusted with in making her debut into theatrical limelight was

Phi Delta Theta Dinner Party

One of the most beautiful and enjoyable affairs of the week was the dinner party at the Lafayette Hotel followed by a dance at the chapter house given by the members and pledges of Phi Delta Theta fraternity on Saturday evening.

The tables at the dinner and the rooms of the chapter house were decorated with the fraternity flower, white carnations, and azure and argent streamers. The April Fool idea was attractively carried out at the banquet by serving fake courses and at the dance by the novelty favors for the girls. An orchestra furnished the music.

Alpha Zeta Dance

The Scovell chapter of Alpha Zeta fraternity entertained with its annual dance at the Phoenix Hotel on Saturday evening complimentary to the pledges. J. F. Freeman, H. B. Waller, L. L. Rudolph and R. T. Bell. Alpha Zeta is the honorary fraternity of the Agricultural College and the pledges are chosen for their class standing and leadership in general. The names are kept secret until the ceremony at the dance announcing them.

Preceding the pledging, a grand march led by J. H. Atkinson and Miss Dorothy Middleton formed the letter A with the pledges making the cross bar. Much applause was shown as each pledge received his button, and the ceremony closed with a pledge dance. The Kentucky Six furnished the music, playing a special program of selections. Punch was served throughout the evening. About two hundred and fifty guests enjoyed this brilliant and successful affair.

The hosts were the active chapter: J. H. Atkinson, Thomas Baird, Oakley Brown, R. E. Davis, Harold Enlow, William Finn, J. A. Hodges, C. A. Hollowell, Edward Johnson, Paul Miller, Frank Wedekemper, H. J. Weil, Berlie Winton.

The initiation was followed by a banquet at the Lafayette in honor of the newly initiated members.

Tau Delta Alpha Dance

The members of Tau Delta Alpha fraternity entertained with a dance at the chapter house on Harrison avenue Saturday evening.

The rooms were decorated with pink carnations and groups of palms. Banners and draperies in the fraternity colors, pale blue and white, added to the attractiveness of the house. An orchestra furnished the music and fruit frappe and cakes were served.

The hosts were: George D. Hagan, William Hugh Peel, Daugh W. Smith, Edward M. Johnson, Powell E. Trichner, Berley Winton, Elbert DeCoursey, Richard C. Miller, Harry B. Waller, Dewey C. Duncan, Charles Terrell, Henry J. Beam, Toliver Anderson, William B. Davis, John Bishop, William N. Schwab, Guy Ledwidge, Neal Sullivan, A. V. McRee, Charles V. Elizabeth Ellis will leave Wednesday night for a week's visit in Virginia. She will be with Mary Archer Bell, a sorority sister, at her home in Raphine until Sunday, when she will go to Lexington to join a houseparty at the Kappa Alpha fraternity house and attend the Easter festivities at Washington and Lee University. She will be the guest of George S. Wilson Jr., of Owensboro Kentucky.

DEAN ANDERSON IS HEARD BY WIRELESS

Students, Friends, "Jerry"
Enjoy Address on "Engineering and Happiness"

More than two score students and townspeople, gathered in the physic lecture room last Monday night to hear an address by Dean F. Paul Anderson by wireless, and saw "Jerry," Dean Anderson's Airedale terrier, give an exhibition of delight when he heard his master's voice.

The conclusion of the address was directed to Jerry. "Here's to you, Jerry. Be a good dog and I will return to you. There is nothing in all the world that can ever take your place in my affections, Jerry! Jerry! Jerry! Good night!"

Dean Anderson is on a year's leave of absence in Pittsburgh, where he is head of the research laboratory of the Bureau of Mines. The subject of his talk Monday night was "Engineering and Happiness."

"Life to the scientist or engineer is not a battle, but a game, and the more skilfully he plays, the more the thrills of life come to him," he said.

"The true engineer is in no sense a materialist; he is a dreamer and an altruist of the rarest sort. The myriads of inventions and products of the engineer all along the path of civilization are but dreams the scientist has made come true."

"The engineer of to-morrow must be more a scientist and scholar than he is

PITTSBURG CLUB CELEBRATES Blue and White Unites Enthusiastic

Alumni in Pennsylvania

We had quite a meeting of the alumni last week. Invitations were sent out early in the week by H. Lee Moore '11, for all alumni to meet at his home in Ben Avon, bringing wives—or, those lacing—best girls, and I thought you might be interested in a few of the details.

About forty were graciously entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Moore. A big blue "K" hung on the white doorway, gave the first thrill, the old "Blue and White."

A wireless concert was sent to us from the Westinghouse board casting station, beginning with an announcement of the meeting and a solo, "My Old Kentucky Home." Mr. Moore has quite a set and the message came in perfectly to us in Ben Avon. We spent a delightful evening at cards and listening to many tales of how things "used to be" by the old grads. There were two members of '11 class and the rest of us were scattered all the way down to the class of '21.

Resolutions of congratulations to President Emeritus Patterson were passed and plans for a meeting at the time of Doctor McVey's visit to Pittsburgh were discussed. Blue and white ices reminded us again that it was a Kentucky meeting.

Dean Anderson talked of the University as it is and the plans and hopes held for its future. We had no end of fun talking about the "monkey battle" in the Legislature.—F. Houston Shaw '21, Care of Armstrong Cook & Insulating Co.

Nearly a hundred Kentuckians representing classes from '75 to '20 attended the meeting last year, which was probably the most successful that had been held to date.

PROFESSOR LAMPERT.

The Kernel is pleased to note the gratifying reception given to a petition in circulation the current week, asking the students to agree to an increase of fifty cents per capita in University fees, for the purpose of aiding the various projects of the Department of Music of which Prof. Carl Lampert is head.

Our information is, that this petition has been signed by virtually every student to whom it has been presented. This attitude on the part of the students reflects in a tangible way the popular student appreciation of the excellent work being done by Professor Lampert and his students.

The Kernel would perhaps not be in error if it made the unqualified statement that no man upon the campus enjoys wider popularity among the students than does the gifted and kindly head of the Department of Music and perhaps none has brought about, in so short a time, so genuine interest in the work of his department. Professor Lampert always with untiring energy, always with compelling grace, has given generously of his services and of the services of his talented family for the well being of nearly every student or faculty affair that he has been called upon so to assist, since he entered the faculty. The weather is never too inclement nor pressing duties too strenuous to make it possible for Professor Lampert and his Musicians to contribute to the enjoyment of entertainments in the University. The remarkable esprit de corps of his department owes itself to the magnetism and radiating generosity of the man.

It is a source of regret to the Kernel that the University appropriation has not been sufficiently generous to give

Professor Lampert opportunity to elaborate the great work he is doing into broader realization of the fine vision he has for it, without resort to student help. The Kernel desires to express its appreciation of the student attitude in this case and believes it can promise them happy results in return.

CARRY ON

The failure of the state to provide the funds for the expansion program of the University has been the occasion for the display of pessimism upon the part of a few of the students. There is no occasion for such a feeling. The significance of the fight lies not in what we gained, but in the fight we made. Never before has the school been able to command such warm and unselfish support on the part of its alumni and students, and even on the part of some of the state's politicians. We lost the first fight, but we are just beginning in the work of organization. The great success that has attended the organization of alumni clubs has done much to hold the interest of the graduates. The Extension work, epitomized by the motto, "The State-wide Campus," is a constant and potent force in advertising the University. Add to this the work of the President and the faculty who speak to thousands each year, and it will be seen that our school is swiftly growing in influence and popularity.

And after all it is not money alone that makes school. Garfield once said that a log with a student on one end and Mark Hopkins on the other would be a University. So it is with us. We have professors who are as good as those anywhere else, not as many perhaps, but enough to hold the University through the critical period. Those who remember the old days of the University are unanimous in reporting the wonderful change for the better. There was a time when professors taught for two or three years without getting a penny of the scanty salary which was supposed to be paid them. Part of our present equipment is said to have been built with money borrowed on President Patterson's personal note. The darkest part of the night is gone. Come what may, the University must go on.

The Kernel notes with much interest the proposal by Chief Justice Taft and others that the colleges of America take a ten year holiday from all intercollegiate athletic contests. The former President stresses the need of a return to the intellectual standards of former days, and a cessation of the spirit of rivalry now so prevalent among the institutions of higher learning. Dr. Ganfield, the former President of Centre College, and several other educators have expressed themselves to the same effect.

With all due respect to the position held by the gentlemen who criticise the sports of the colleges, the Kernel cannot agree that the spirit of intellectual growth has been sacrificed to that of athletic rivalry. It is true that some of our athletes are not good students, but it is also true that many of the non-athletes are poor students. A glance at the list of the great college men of the last quarter century shows that a surprising number of them were athletes. Undoubtedly some colleges have sacrificed too much to athletics, but these schools must not be reformed at the expense of conservative institutions such as our own. A skilled doctor will not amputate a leg to cure an ulcer.

BASE BALL SEASON OPENS WITH CLASH AGAINST MICHIGAN

Kentucky Team Has Been
But Through Brisk Work-
outs Every Afternoon

SLOMER LEADS NINE

Michigan Team Reported to be Unusually Strong

One of the hardest games of the season is scheduled to be played here next Saturday afternoon when the Kentucky Wildcats cross bats with the Michigan Wolverines on Stoll Field. The curtain is scheduled to rise at 2:30 p. m. sharp.

Monday afternoon the squad went through a brisk workout, the men fast whipping into condition for Saturday's game under the guidance of Coach Jim Park. The slugging average of the team has taken an upward trend and if the men are able to connect with the ball in Saturday's conflict as they have in practice, Dixon's reputation as a star pitcher will receive a serious jolt. Burnham's hitting is showing up well. "Dutch" being able to direct the ball where the boys in the outfield are unable to reach it with a basket.

Captain "Bud" Slomer who will lead the Wildcats from the pitcher's box is putting a great deal of non-hittable stuff on the ball and gives fair promise to demonstrate the meaning of wasted energy to the opposing batters in the coming game. Winters is another pitcher who is showing speed on the old ball, while Waldren, Robertson and Lafferty are making fine showing in the box.

The Wildcat infield and outfield is one of the strongest that has been on Stoll Field in many moons and promise to give the pitching staff excellent support.

Michigan is reported to have an unusually strong team this year which comes with hard hitting outfit and can be expected to give the Wildcats stiff opposition. Captain Ernie Vick who plays behind the plate is a performer of the first magnitude having received many offers from Major League teams. It is reported that he will join the St. Louis Cardinals at the end of the season. This is Vick's second season on the varsity team. Dixon was one of the mainstays in Michigan's pitching outfit last year losing only two games that he started and may be depended upon to try to maintain that record.

Uteritz who holds down the second sack is considered a fast and clever infielder. He is a fair hitter and an exceptionally goodbase stealer. He holds the record of not being caught stealing base once last season. Johnny Shackleford played at first last year but has been switched to the outfield this season. He is one of the heaviest hitters on the team.

At the time of going to press the Michigan lineup had not been received.

The probable lineup for Kentucky is as follows: Brown 1b; Burnham 2b; King ss; Pergren 3b; Beam lf; Jones cf; Boren or Waldren rf; Pribble or Henry c; Shomer p.

"Rasty" Wright umpire.

UNIVERSITY DEBATERS TRIUMPH OVER BEREA

Ex-Berea Men Represent University on Subject of Immigration Laws

There were two outstanding features in the debate between the University of Kentucky and Berea College March 29 in which the University defeated Berea by a vote of two to one.

In the first place three ex-Berea men represented the University, namely, Raymond Johnson, Leonard Fielder and Clay Porter. And in the second place, for the first time in the history of the University of Kentucky, a body of rooters went over to cheer the debate.

The team and rooters left at two o'clock Wednesday afternoon, and were given a hearty reception by the dormitory boys upon their arrival in Berea. An enthusiastic audience of 1500 attended the debate and the interest and tension was keen.

The subject of the debate was: "Resolved: That the present Dillingham Law be retained as a permanent measure; namely, that 3 per cent of each nationality which was already in the country during the 1910 census be the only arrival quota allowed to enter the United States."

The University men had the affirmative side. They were well trained in delivery and their rebuttal was clear cut, decisive and to the point.

Composing the Berea team were Byrd West, Henry Johnson and William Keller. The judges were H. H. Brock, C. A. Keith and W. J. Grinstead, all of Eastern Kentucky Normal School at Richmond.

The next debate will take place tomorrow night, April 8, when Professor Mikesell's third squad composed of Pickett, Daugh Smith and K. H. Tuggle, will debate three town men at Eubank, Ky., a jeweler, a banker and a professor.

This debate will also be on the subject of Immigration, the University men having the affirmative side.

Other debates scheduled for the near future are:

April 22—Kentucky vs Sewanee at Sewanee; team: Fielder and Peal.

April 29—Kentucky vs Vanderbilt at Lexington; team Hayes and Porter.

May 13—Kentucky vs University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, N. C.; team Johnson and Neale.

EMMET'S EDLETS

Old Man April Fool as usual played his annual joke last Saturday when he dished out weather ideal for football, but just a trifle too cool to polish off the diamond to the desired proportions, and the Georgetown-Kentucky game had to be called off. Along about 10:30 Saturday morning "Daddy" Boles got in communication with Georgetown and the game was postponed. The probable date of the tilt with Georgetown is set forward to April 28. No definite information as to whether this date is final or not could be given out until the return of Coach Rhoton to Georgetown.

PHI UPSILON OMICRON PLEDGES IN CHAPEL

Miss Clay Makes Principal Address; Dean Cooper and Miss Cornell Speak

After an address by Miss Laura Clay, a prominent and widely known woman of Lexington, in Chapel at the fifth hour Tuesday, the pledging services of the Phi Upsilon Omicron, honorary home economics fraternity were held. Nell Hank, Edith Alexander, Paducah, Sarah Cequin, Fulton, and Julia Willis, Lagrange, were pinned with the yellow and white pledge ribbons of the fraternity.

Miss Clay's subject was "Citizenship For Women." By way of beginning she said that she never sees a group of young people without thinking of the wonderful time that is theirs, and the many opportunities that await them as a result of the great things done by science. She said that the first unit of citizenship is to be open to a great baptism of self respect and to have a respect for what fine womanliness means. She stated that in the progress and expansion of laws men still retain the physical power, which used to be the method of the law, an it is for the women, who have come into the full share and development of the laws, to bring in the spiritual power and uphold it, and they must set their faces like flint against any infringement.

In closing, Miss Clay said that loyalty for law, service and sacrifice, are the offices in which women can make good citizenship for each other and for the good of all.

Dean Cooper in his short talk spoke highly of the organization and said that the thing that people most desired above wealth or anything was the recognition by and from those with whom they are associating and working. And that is why, so he says, people are willing to work and sacrifice, as Miss Clay mentioned in her address. In closing he said that scholarship, work and promise of ability to work in the future and willingness to stand by the Agricultural College and the University was the meaning of the honorary home economics fraternity.

Miss Cornell in her short talk on "What Phi Upsilon Omicron Means" gave a short history of the chapter and told the requirements for membership.

After the exercises were over the active chapter Fannie Heller, Bernice McClure, Elizabeth King and Pearl Morgan gave a luncheon in the Cafeteria in honor of the pledges and honorary members, Miss Marietta Eichelberger and Miss Margaret Coffin. Fannie Heller was toastmistress and responded to the following toasts: Mrs. Jessen—Alpha chapter, Miss Cornell—Gamma Chapter and Elizabeth King—Iota Chapter.

Mr. Zerfoss said: "No matter what his environment, if a boy has a high ideal he will be a success. Most boys have fixed their success or failure before they are 22." "Dad" gave many illustrations of outstanding men who have had an ideal and have so rendered invaluable service to the world. He spoke of Martin Luther and Lincoln and compared the lives of Aaron Burr and Robert E. Spear, of Napoleon and Woodrow Wilson showing the failure of one and the success of the other.

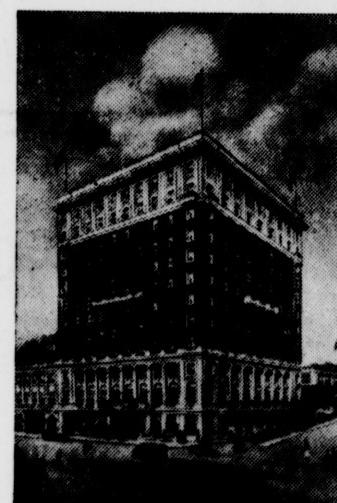

He ended by giving a summary of "The Great Stone Face" and stated that if we only looked at the face of Jesus by reading the scriptures that we, like Earnest, would become like him.

SYMPATHY EXTENDED TO BEREAVED FACULTY

Resolutions of Condolence Passed for Professors Terrell, Mikesell and Sax

Three members of the faculty of the College of Arts and Sciences have lost a father since the last meeting of the faculty.

Professor Terrell's father passed away at the home of his daughter in Louisa, Virginia, March 9, at the advanced age of 92 years. He is survived by one son and one daughter. Professor Mikesell's father, a builder, died suddenly in an accident at Wilmington, Delaware, March 12, leaving a widow, three sons and two daughters. The father of Professor Sax died after a lingering illness at Chicago, March 17. A widow, one son and a daughter survive.

When one arrives at years of maturity one realizes how great one's parents were. Our bereaved colleagues have the consolation that they lived to appreciate all that is good and great in a father, and to enjoy in mature years his friendship and council. But the loss of a father always brings poignant grief.

Therefore, be it resolved: That we the members of the faculty of the College of Arts and Sciences share with Professor Terrell, Professor Mikesell and Professor Sax their grief, and extend to them all the sympathy of friends and colleagues.

MR. REED SPEAKS TO DELTA SIGMA PI

Economic Problems of Interest Discussed

Mr. W. Reed of the Lexington Public Utilities Company spoke to the members of Delta Sigma Pi Tuesday evening, April 4, on the subject "Recent developments in Public Utilities Control."

Mr. Reed is a graduate of Virginia Military Institute, and has been in public utilities work for several years. For a time after his graduation from college he was with the General Electric Co., and was stationed in New York. He has charge of the engineering plant in Lexington, but has made a study of the entire field of financing, administering and controlling municipal service corporations. He showed the wonderful results reached by the application of modern methods in the business, and the immense saving made possible by new machinery and new methods of cost accounting. He showed that the traction company would effect an immense saving in operating expenses through the introduction of the new type of cars on the interurban lines. These cars were designed by the engineers of the traction company, and are known as the Lexington cars.

Mr. Reed is one of several speakers who have addressed the members of the commerce fraternity. The students are studying economic problems by actual contact with institutions and men.

CAMPUS CHATTER

The senior class, at a meeting Friday afternoon, March 31, decided to set aside the fourth and fifth hours of May 5 for their annual arbor day celebration. As has been the custom for years the graduating class will plant a tree of the campus as a memorial to itself. The planting will be followed with class exercises including the class oration, class history and class prophecy. Moving day, characterized chiefly by a take off of the faculty by members of the senior class, will also be observed at this time.

Dr. J. T. C. Noe, on leave of absence touring Europe, writes Dean Boyd of his arrival in Madeira which he describes as a city having a wonderful approach, situated on a mountainous island covered with villages and vineyards. His stay in Madeira, he said, would probably not be more than twenty four hours, after which he would go to Gibraltar.

SCRIBBLERS CLUB IS ORGANIZED AT U. K.

Those Who Have Produced Outstanding Work are Eligible to Membership

The Junior Scribblers, a recently organized club of the campus for the stimulating of greater literary effort among those students who desire to be writers, is an organization which has already been instrumental in the production of efficient work.

Eligible for membership are those who have produced outstanding work and have shown exceptional ability to write.

In many respects the club is similar to the Canterbury Club which was organized on the campus several years ago. The Junior Scribblers, however, do not limit membership to male students only, but permits membership of girls.

The Club meets every two weeks when those who desire literary criticism and encouragement are given an opportunity to have their desire for literary association satisfied.

The program last Friday evening was limited mainly to poetry. Professor Fitch read some of his poetry which has a true professional finish. Professor Knight's poetry was read and appreciated and Mr. Razor read some excellent characterizations and verse.

The membership of the club includes Misses Martha McClure, Amanda Forkner, Dorothea Murphy, Frances Marsh, Pansy Meyers, Carlisle Chenault, and Professors Grant C. Knight, Harvey Scott Kincks, Fling, Fitch and Messrs. Earl Smith, George Taylor, secretary of the Club, Mr. Razor, W. W. Anderson, William Hickerson and Arthur Hodges.

"Oui, Oui, Madame" when introduced as the French model. When asked if she thought she could carry the part of Rosalie she translated this French phrase into a pure Irish brogue winning her the leading role. She has known her lines from the very beginning and being of pure Irish descent the part comes to her naturally. This part calls for a masterful character interpretation and professional acting both of which demands she met immediately.

Mamie Miller Woods who was charming as Helen O'Neil will be unable to appear in the play, because illness during the mid-year examinations caused her to be absent during an examination and the second examination was not taken soon enough after the part was assigned to her to give her the required standing to appear in a Stroller play.

Tryouts were immediately opened for this part and the judges decided that Frances Smith, daughter of Mrs. Charles Judson Smith of this city was best suited to fill this vacancy. Her attractive personal graces, youthful appearance, perfect poise, gentle manner and soft voice makes her interpretation and rendering of the part very pleasing. Although she is only a freshman and this will be her first appearance in connection with Stroller productions, she has had previous experience in dramatic productions, and the Club is looking forward to her with interest in this and future theatricals.

The part of Grace Standish that was assigned to Frances Smith last week was turned over to Nan Chenault by a vote of the cast Tuesday evening. This is a minor part with only a few speaking lines for the character, but it requires one who is perfectly at ease on the stage as she appears in every act, and a good listener is half of any actor's part. She appeared in the leading role in "All of a Sudden Peggy" a play given at Maysville High school last year.

John Albright who has the leading male role, has been directing the rehearsals during the absence of John Burks who is in Chicago on the Junior Engineer Inspection trip.

The initial performance will be Froman of Lexington; J. R. Rash of given in Lexington April 20 and repeated April 21. The cast will then start on tour with the play through the southern and south western part of the State.

Tickets for "The Thirteenth Chair" will be placed on sale at an early date and should be procured immediately as various groups of seats will be reserved. Practically every fraternity will have a section of seats or boxes reserved for theatre parties. The faculty will also have a block of seats reserved. Individual tickets may be obtained for the first performance if they are obtained early.

the student body in the University fight for legislation had been very splendid and helpful. An appropriate resolution was offered, seconded, and adopted, commanding the student body for their loyalty and splendid efforts in the program of the administration.

A report on the bills in which the University was interested in was included in the president's report. These bills were as follows:

A bill giving the University the right of eminent domain. This bill was passed, was signed by the Governor, and is now in force.

Pure seed bill. This bill was passed and carried an appropriation of $8,000, and was vetoed by the Governor.

The food and drug bill. This bill provided for the establishment of food and drug laboratories at the University and was defeated.

Inheritance tax. This bill provided for a modification of the present inheritance tax law. If passed it would have given the University about a hundred thousand dollars annually, and each of the normal schools about forty thousand dollars annually.

Automobile tax bill. This was a bill introduced into the Legislature providing for a regulation tax on automobiles. It was not introduced at the instance of the University. It would have given the University about $20,000 the first year and $5,000 in each succeeding year. This bill was passed and vetoed by the Governor.

Evolution bill. This was the bill about which there has been so much discussion. It failed of passage.

Budget bill. This bill allowed the University the regular 1 1-3 cents tax and as originally introduced provided for an increased appropriation over the regular 1 3-4 cents tax of $30,000 for agricultural construction, $25,000 for repairs and building in addition to the usual appropriation. The bill was amended so as to provide for $100,000 for building and $45,000 for the payment of debt during the two years, these appropriations to be continued over a period of two years. The amendments were passed and vetoed by the Governor, resulting in the loss of the item of $50,000 which would have stood had the bill not been amended.

President McVey reported that during the first semester of this year there was an enrollment of 1450 students in regular session; 101 new students were added during the second semester, and 496 during the summer session. These together with short course and extension students makes a total enrollment of 2561. This does not include 121 students in the Guidance School. This is an increase of 272 students in regular session over last year.

Leave of absence for a period of two months was granted to Mr. R. C. Miller of the Experiment Station for purposes of travel in Europe. Sabbatical leave of absence for the year 1922-23 was granted to Doctor Gianville Terrell, head of the Department of Philosophy.

A building situation was designated for the Sigma Chi fraternity. This building site will be provided on Winslow Street near the Sigma Nu fraternity. The Sigma Chi has the plans well under way for building, and plans will now be made by their engineers for the fraternity house. Those present at the meeting were: George Colvin of Frankfort; W. C. Hanna, Commissioner of Agriculture; T. L. Hornsby of Eminence, Senator H. M.

Henderson; Robert G. Gordon of Louisville; Judge Richard C. Stoll of Lexington; Rainey T. Wells of Frankfort; Frank McKee of Versailles; J. I. Lyle of New York City; P. P. Johnston, Jr., of Lexington.

Peck, who has had considerable experience in dramatic work. She will play opposite Henry Taylor, a Little Theatre player of marked success. Others appearing are Sue Chenault, whose acting has always merited and received much applause from University audiences; John Vogel, who has appeared several times before in the Little Theatre and who is a member of the Stroller cast in its forthcoming production; Ruth Gorman, J. R. Davidson, W. I. Moore, T. A. Bayless, and E. H. Saunders.

Tom Brooks will assume the singing roles. He will be assisted by D. C. Vest, J. A. Warren, and K. H. Tuggle.

The play will be costumed in medieval style. The leading lady will wear a high conical hat and long robes. Costumes are being made by members of the Home Economics Department.

The play will be preceded by a one act performance entitled "The Thinking Clock", written and produced by Professor Grant C. Knight of the University faculty. The two roles will be played by faculty members, Miss Pauline Wherry and Professor Knight.

Altogether the bill promises to be one of the best given in the Little Theatre this year. Single admission for students will be fifty cents and Tuesday night's performance will be especially for them.

In Selecting a University---

For a college education, there are five things to be taken into consideration:

1. The men at the head of the institution.
2. The Scholastic standing and ability of the Teaching Staff.
3. The location and advantages of environment.
4. Equipment, buildings, laboratories and libraries.
5. Cost.

In all these respects the University of Kentucky Commands itself to those seeking a higher institution in which to carry on their education.

All Departments, including Liberal Arts, Sciences, Agriculture, Law, Education, Mining, Civil, Electrical and Mechanical Engineering.
